Joel-

Citing CBS, ESPN is reporting that NCAA President Mark Emmert will announce "unprecedented penalties" to be imposed on Penn State at 9:00 am Monday morning. No details on exactly what those "unprecedented" might be.

You also may have seen that PSU removed Joe Paterno's statue earlier this morning. Joe Schad is right now reporting that the "death penalty" will not be imposed but that "extensive scholarship and/or multiple years of bowl bans" will be imposed.
